

Fishing Wonder

The Chronicles of Lizzy

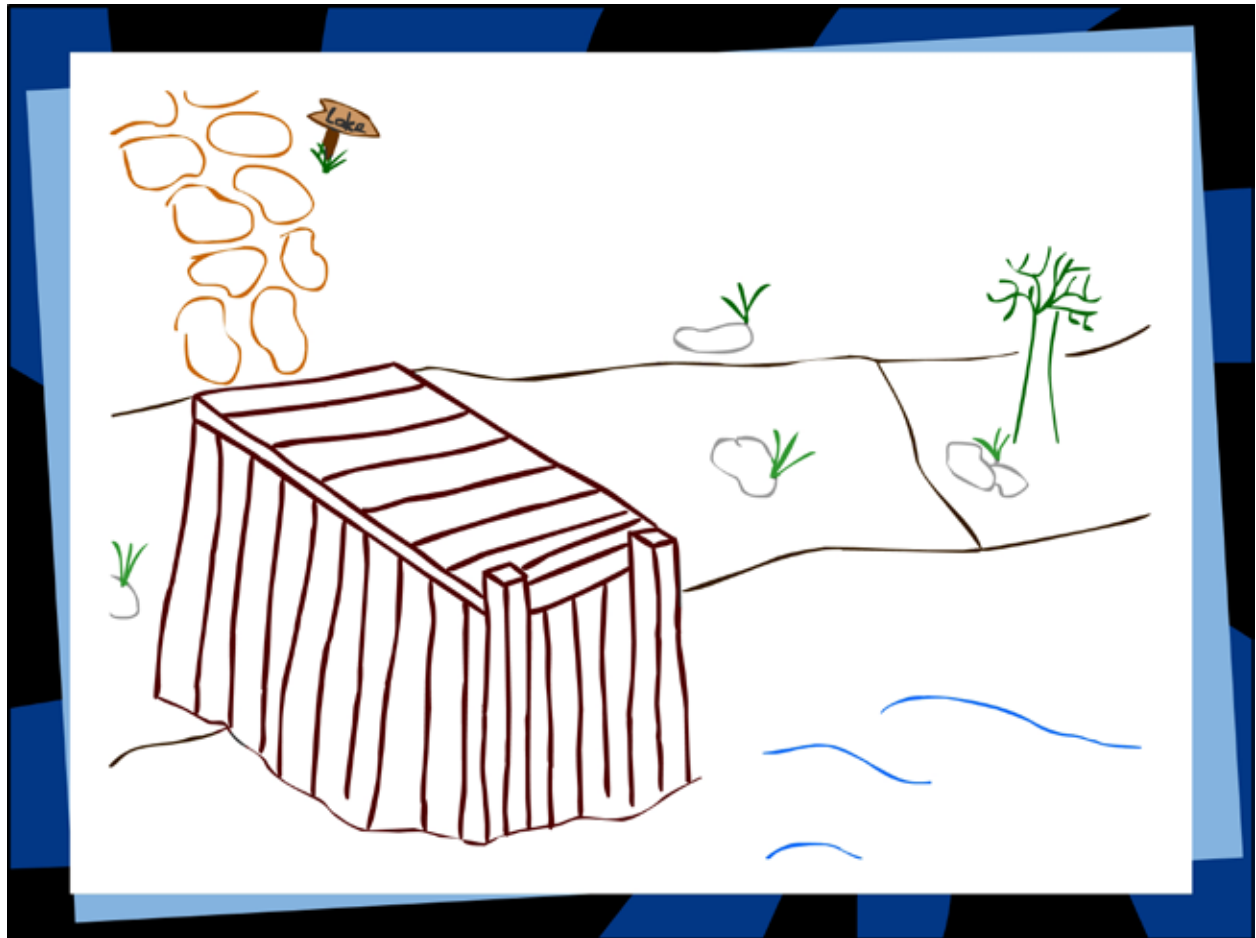

Benjamin Gauthier
illustrations by Benjamin Gauthier

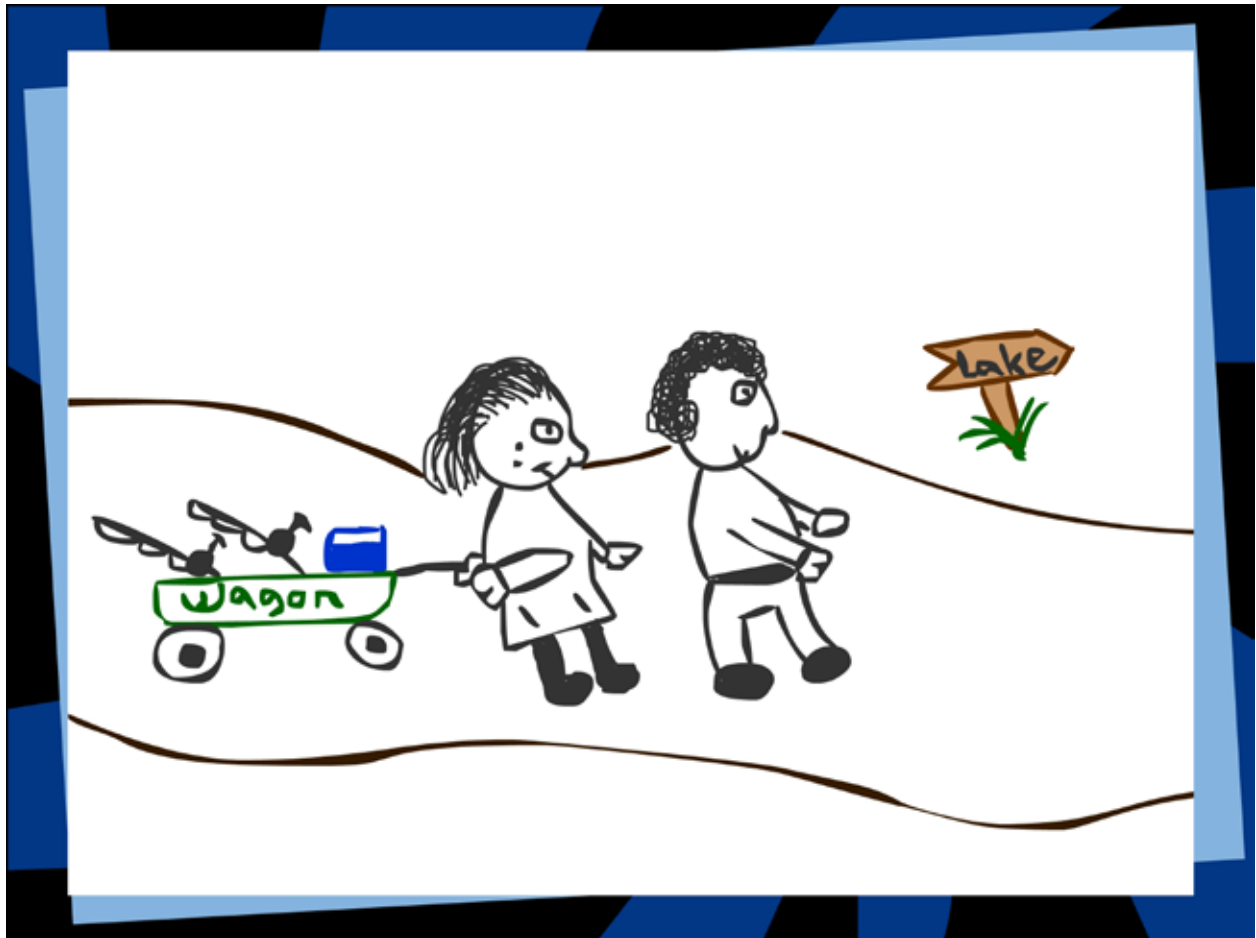

One day on a sunny road there was a little house.

It wasn't just a normal day; it was the perfect day to go fishing.

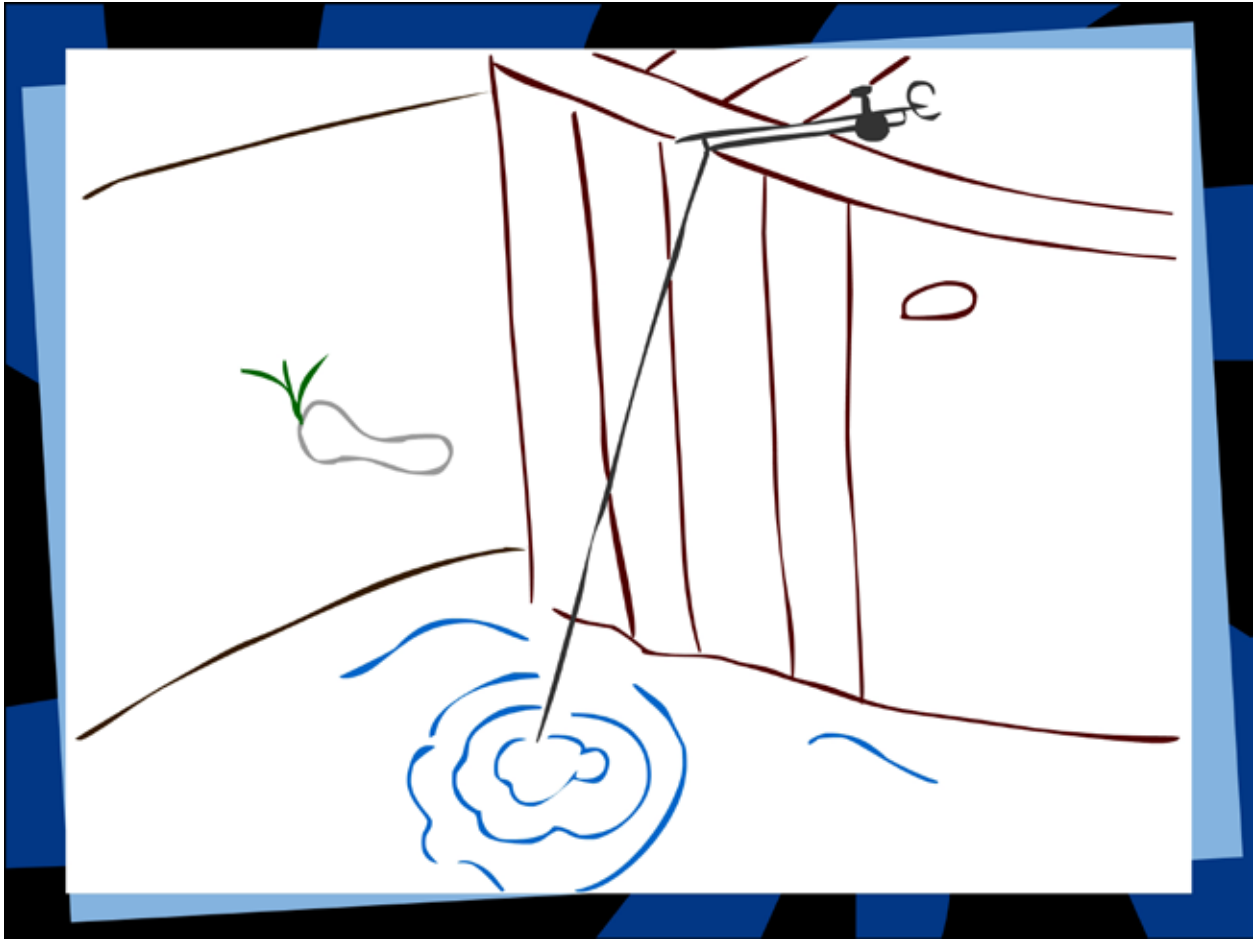

So Lizzy and her father set out for their day of fishing at the beautiful blue lake.

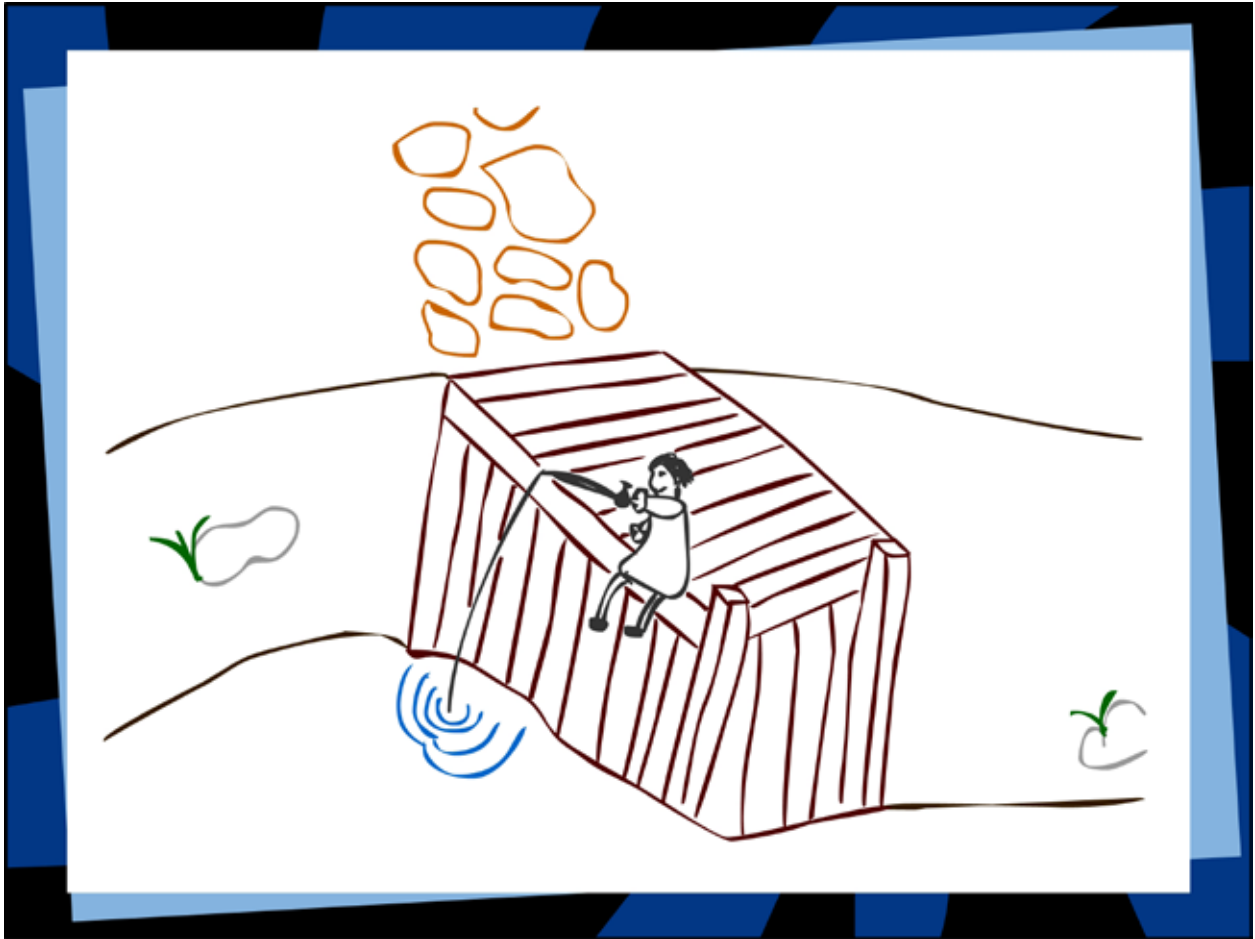

At the lake they threw their lines in the water.

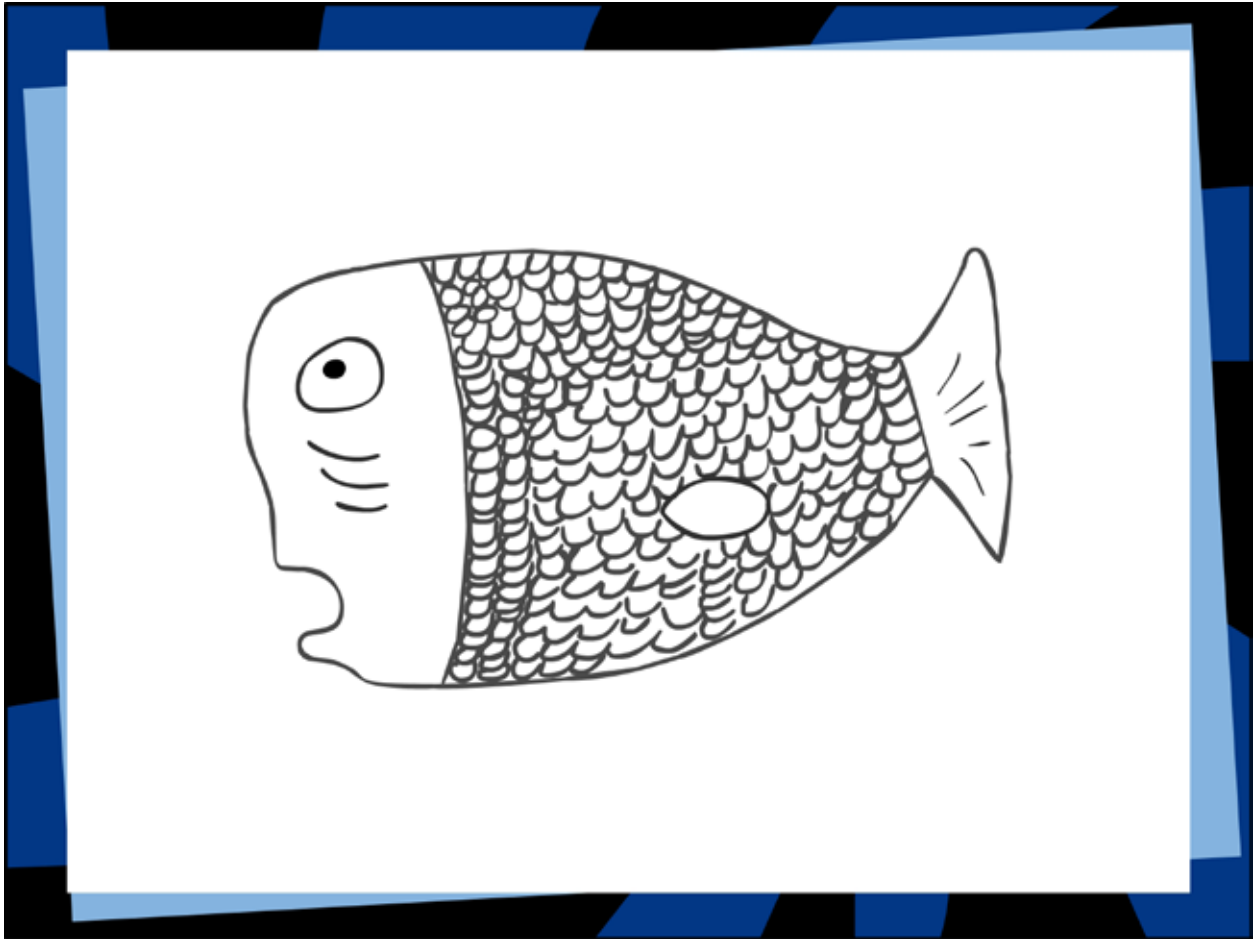

They waited and waited and waited.

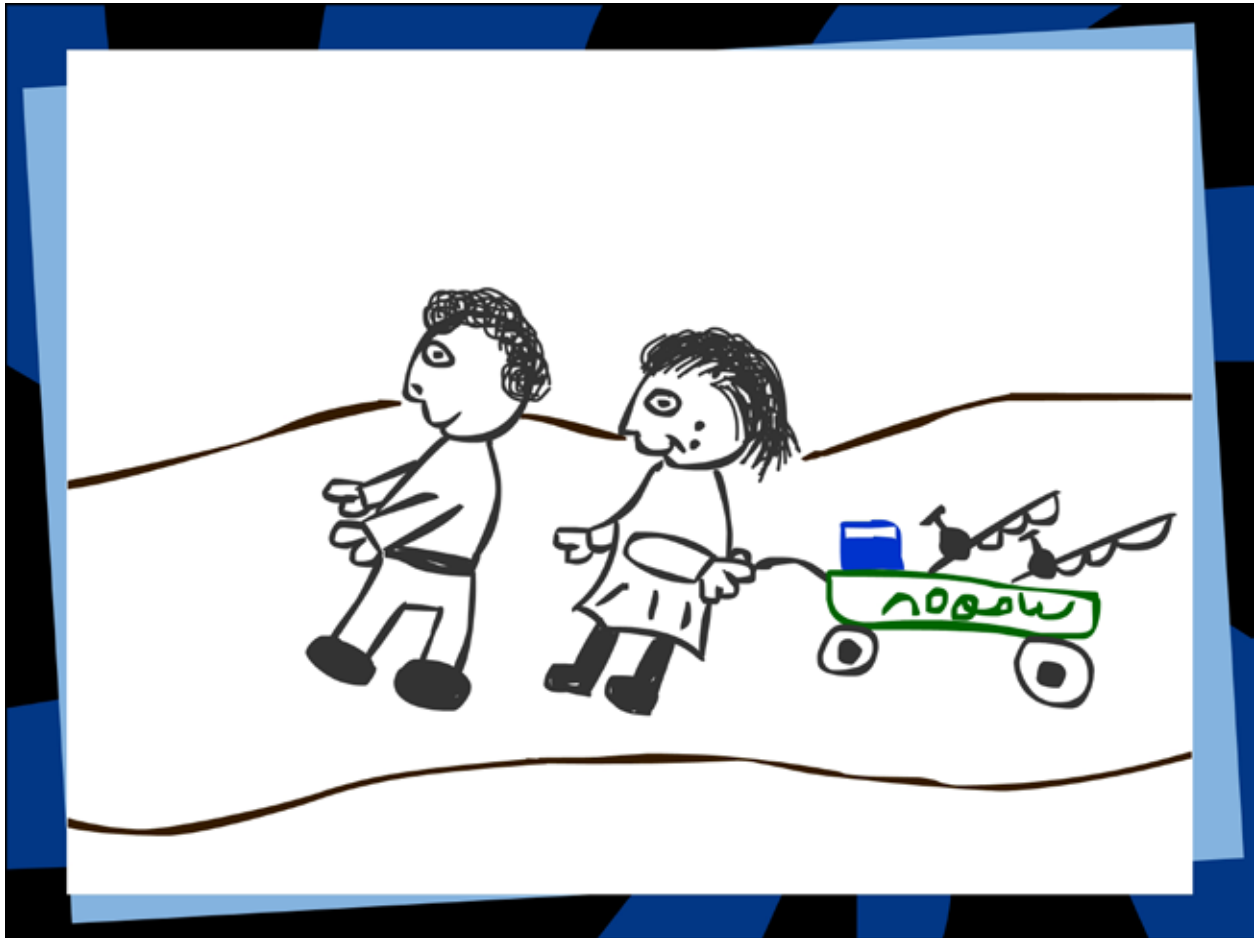

Suddenly, the line shook!

Lizzy jumped up and pulled in the line.
She had a big, big fish.

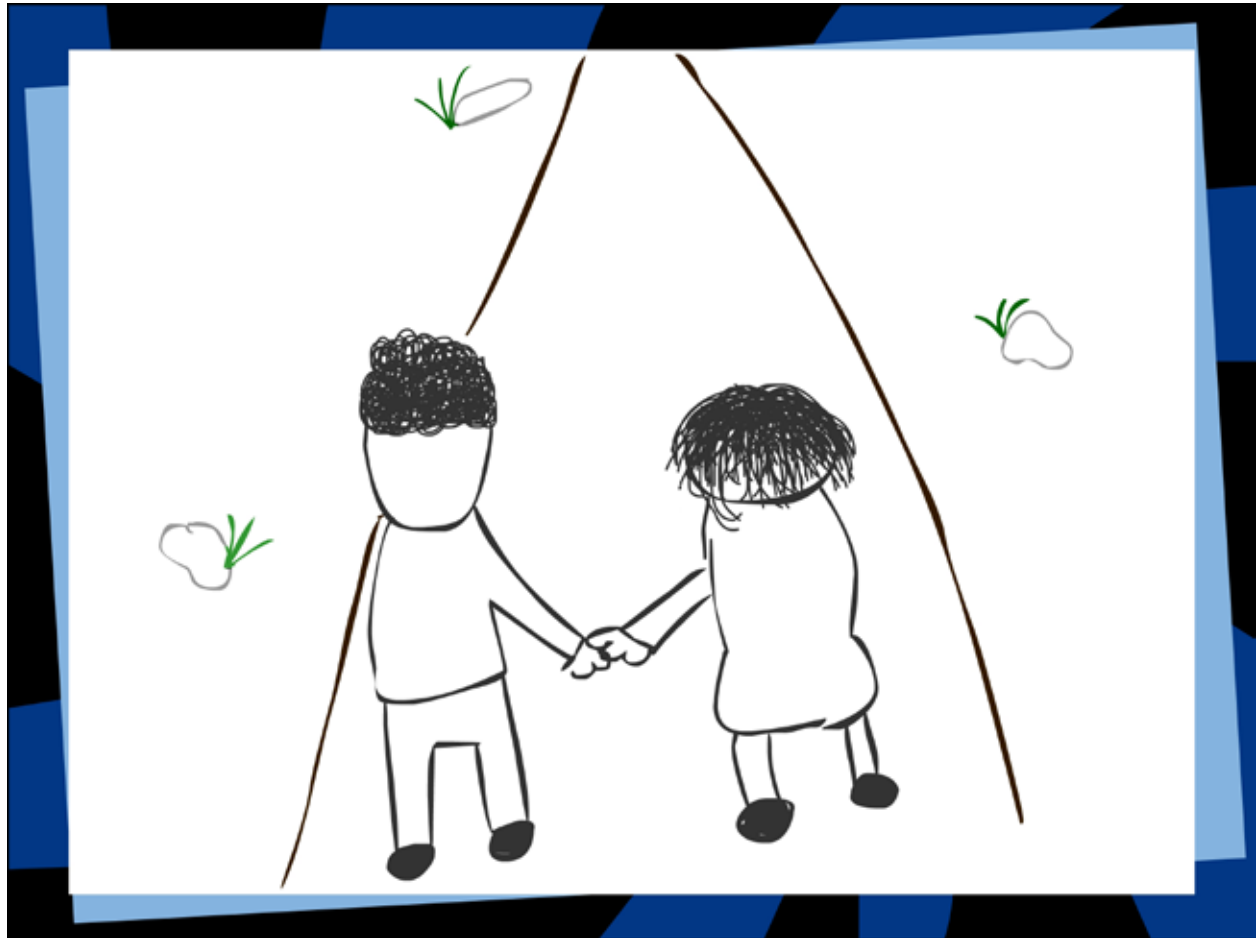

Lizzy and her dad packed up their fishing rods and began their journey back home.

At home the mother was so surprised at how big the fish was. She cooked the fish and they all ate it for supper.

The father was very proud of Lizzy.

